CoBA Meet and Greet (9/11): I had the pleasure of promoting and representing ASI alongside Anahi to CoBA students interested in learning more about ASI and CoBA organizations. I spoke with a few students who expressed interest in running for CoBA Rep next year and job opportunities within our amazing organization. I also highlighted key resources such as the Cougar Pantry and Festival 78. Student Fee Advisory Committee (9/17): At our first SFAC meeting, we learned about the operations of several campus departments, including the University Student Union, Commencement, and Student Health and Counseling Services. Many of these departments have been operating at a deficit for the past few years. Student fees have remained the same for over a decade, even as inflation, cost of living, and enrollment have steadily increased. Departments are proposing fee increases to sustain operations. In upcoming meetings, we will review the proposed fee amounts and make recommendations before the final proposal goes to President Neufeldt. First Gen Kick Start: Frame Your Future Event (9/23): Next week, Itsarely and I will host our first CoBA Rep event to support first-gen students. Many lack access to affordable headshots, which are essential for LinkedIn and professional platforms. This event aims to provide that resource while connecting students with valuable support programs. Free professional headshots LinkedIn workshop Networking with TRIO, EOP, and other first-gen students Free snacks September 23, 2025 12–1 PM USU Meeting Rooms

Q5. Highlights and successes related to your position (i.e. meetings, past events, new campus/community partners)

Recently I have been very busy! CEHHS applications have officially wrapped up and we have been interviewing students interested in the position. On Wednesday, September 10th I attended the Board of Trustees meeting to potentially speak on the Wellness and Recreation Center which ended up passing! I got to film a fun video with Cameron and Anahi to promote BOD, SAC and IO to students. I also attended ASI Skate and got to share about what ASI is to students so they could fill out their BINGO card and enter into the parking raffle. I have also been having 1:1's with the BOD reps to hear any questions or concerns about their position and hear about project updates and areas that I could provide more support. Furthermore, I got to attend our first ASI bonding event which allowed me to spend some time with my fellow ASIers and get to know more about them.

Q7. Updates on ASI Committees

We elected a Vice Chair for SAC, Haley Burch.

Q8. What University Committees are you currently sitting on?

General Education Committee

Q9. Updates on University Committees

We discussed two potential classes that could be introduced as GE. The first one "SOC - 207 - Critical Thinking in Justice and the Rule of Law" and the second one "SOC - 205 - Exploring Social Problems". Both of these would cover the Area 1B (Critical thinking) area in GE. We also discussed the pros/cons of GEL classes for freshman, what we can do with them or what we can change to make it more relevant or helpful for students. There is also potential to make Major specific GEL classes to prep students for their requirements and introduce them smoothly.

Q11. Upcoming Events and New Initiatives/Collaborations

I will be attending Boba with the Board which is on September 25. Our first events will be in October and November.

Q12. Areas of concern related to your position and its constituents

We have a goal of creating more organizations that are more directly related to CHABSS Majors or Minors that students are asking to start.

Last week during U-hour, Anahi and I walked around the USU and went to visit the student life centers that were recently relocated to the 2nd floor of the USU. It was great getting familiar with the area and meeting the student employees that work these centers. This week I had my second ARACSJ meeting, which was very informational. We had a presentation given to us by Erik Ramirez on the COMPASS Center, what it is about and the services they offer students. Aside from that we talked about current issues such as helping employees on campus to educate with knowledge and resources for "immigration impacted" students and faculty. Anahi and I have also been planning for the launch of the ASI Resource Cart which should launch very soon!
